5. Old business
  - a. Behavioral Health Docket (BHD) – via email from Judge Hoffman “The Newport News Behavioral Health Docket is going well. We have 13 active participants and are anticipating our first graduation in April. The city has agreed to provide funding for a part-time assistant and two case workers at CSB for the 2019-2020 fiscal year. The docket was awarded a $50,000 grant that will be used for a pre-trial services officer dedicated to the docket.”

6. New business

- a. Regional Jail has been awarded 2nd grant from DCJS which will fund 9 positions. The grant will be administered by city of Chesapeake Community Services Board. It will fund 2 case managers (3 for HNNCSB) to help facilitate release and aftercare for inmates being released from the jail.
- b. There will be a Uniform Law Commission meeting in DC on March 2-3, Sheriff Morgan will be attending. There is a continued discussion on the elimination of cash bond. Sheriff Morgan uses CJA as a model hybrid system that works.
- c. Shelby Spenser-Jones is the SAMHS Project Coordinator for the HNNCSB. The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) grant will provide a Peer Recovery Specialist that will go to the hospitals to assess people that have non-fatal overdoses to let them know about services that are available. There will also be a reentry coordinator; the goal is to get them connected with Medicare.
- d. Sherry Hunt –HNNCSB will be presenting the annual Opioid and Peer Recovery Symposium on April 17th. See attached flyer.
- e. Dean Barker– NN BHD will hold its first graduation shortly. The NN BHD received a second $500.00 donation from the Oyster Point Rotary Club, the monies will be used to purchase incentives for the clients. Natalia Christensen, Sherry Glasgow and Dean met with several judges and Mary Bunting for the initial planning of implementing a Behavioral Health Docket in Hampton. Judge Smith will be submitting the application shortly.
- f. Dean Barker- Crisis Intervention Team Assessment Center (CITAC) moved to Sentara Careplex. Looking to get something in Newport News.
- g. Judge Kline – The City of Newport News planted a tree outside court room one in memory of Judge Logsdon along with a bench in his memory; dedication on March 21st at 4pm.

With no further business before the board, the meeting adjourned at 5:33 p.m.
