Sign up for emergency preparedness workshop

August 28, 2014 – Do you want to know what to do the next time a natural or man-made disaster strikes? Sign up now for the free Preparedness Day Workshop that Hampton’s Emergency Management Office will host Saturday, Sept. 27.

The workshop will focus on how to prepare for and safely live through disasters and other emergencies, including hurricanes, floods, tornadoes, blizzards and earthquakes.

Participants will rotate among six different stations, learning new information and skills about:

- Food and water safety
- Home safety
- First aid and hygiene
- Fraud and home security, including identity protection
- Planning documents
- Ready kits

The workshop will be at the Northampton Community center, 1435-A, Todds Lane, from 9 a.m.-noon on Sept. 27. Because seating is limited, you must be registered to attend.

Pre-register for the workshop by filling out the online form or by contacting Hampton’s Community Call Center at 3-1-1 or 727-8311. Please include how many will be attending.

Complete your registration on the day of the workshop by checking in between 8:30 and 9 a.m. at the Northampton Community Center. Go online for more information about emergency management.
