Driver Identified in Crash Investigation: 200 Block of Admiral Court

The Hampton Police Division has identified the individual that died in a crash on March 30, 2015 in the 200 block of Admiral Court.

At 12:43 p.m., Hampton Police Communications received an e911 call in reference to a vehicle crash in the 200 block of Admiral Court. Upon officer's arrival, they located a single vehicle crash and discovered that the driver was in critical condition. The driver was transported to a local hospital by members of Hampton Fire and Rescue Division where he was pronounced deceased upon arrival. He has been identified as William Fairland, an 82-year-old Hampton man.

The investigation has revealed that a 2010 Mercury Grand Marquis was traveling southbound on Howe Road when the driver experienced a medical condition which caused him to lose control of the vehicle. As a result, the vehicle crashed through a fence in the 200 block of Admiral Court and then struck a tree. The Hampton Police Division's Crash Reconstruction Team has determined that the driver's medical condition was the cause of the crash.

Sergeant Jason Price will receive questions about this release at 727-6638.
