Teens wanted to join Youth Advisory Group

June 7, 2017 - The Citizens' Unity Commission is looking for interested young people to join its Youth Advisory Group. Comprised of 13 members between the ages of 13 and 19, the Youth Advisory Group is an extension of the Unity Commission and represents the voice of young people on issues related to diversity and inclusion.

The Group's goals include increasing opportunities for young people to engage in meaningful discussions about diversity and inclusion, and planning and executing events that raise awareness about diversity and inclusion.

If you or someone you know lives in Hampton, cares about diversity and inclusion, and is between the ages of 13 and 19, go to <http://www.hampton.gov/DocumentCenter/View/17844>, fill out and submit an application by Friday, June 30. All applications should be emailed to Latiesha Handie at latiesha.handie@hampton.gov. For more information, call 757-728-3279. To learn more about the Unity Commission and Youth Advisory Group, go to www.hampton.gov/unity.
