

FORKLIFT CLASSROOM EXAM

Course title: Forklift Classroom Exam	Participant:	Instructor:	Date:
--	--------------	-------------	-------

1. What is the difference between a forklift and your personal vehicle? Check all that apply.

- Personal Vehicles have an enclosed structure
- Forklifts have a tighter turning radius
- Vehicles weigh 3,000 to 5,000 pounds while forklifts weigh 9,000 to 30,000
- Forklifts are easier to tip over

2. What information is located on the data plate? Check all that apply.

- Maximum height of mast's extension (how far you can raise the mast)
- Optional attachments and the lifting weight adjustment
- Forklift's weight
- Forklift's Fuel Type

3. What PPE is required to operate a forklift? Check all that apply.

- Hardhat
- Safety glasses
- Steel toe boots
- Hi-Viz Vest
- SEATBELT

4. When mounting your forklift you should always use the 3-Points of contact rule. The 3-Point contact rule is: Both hands and one foot or two feet and one hand.

- True
- False

FORKLIFT CLASSROOM EXAM

5. Before you start work you should always (check all that apply):

- Check your jobsite for obstructions
- Listen to your favorite jams.
- Check to ensure your lift can handle the work being performed
- Properly inspect your forklift

6. When going up and down ramps your load should always face uphill.

- True
- False

7. If the forklift tips over, you should do the following (check all that apply):

- Keep your hands, legs, and arms in the cab and close to your body
- Lean away from the fall
- NEVER jump from the vehicle
- Rely on your seatbelt and call for help immediately after