

The logo for 'I VALUE HAMPTON' is centered at the top of the page. It features the text 'I VALUE' in a large, white, sans-serif font, with 'HAMPTON' in a smaller, white, sans-serif font directly below it. The text is set against a blue, textured background that resembles a watercolor splash or a brushstroke.

Organization: Silver Sneakers Group, YMCA

Meeting Date: March 29, 2012

in Attendance: 41

- Asked for explanation of housing values in relation to taxes.
- Does the city get money (taxes) from other sources other than housing?
- On every utility bill there is a tax, where does it go?
- Why are the gas prices increasing here and cheaper in North Carolina?
- With the required clean up of the Chesapeake Bay, who pays for the expenses?
- A resident lives a block away from Harbor Square Apartments and is happy that the city is buying the property.
- Do the freight ships that come into Hampton Roads help pay for any of the costs to clean up the Bay.
- We have needs and wants, when all is good; the first thing to be cut is education and when times are bad, education is still cut, why?
- Are we laying off any teachers this year?
- We love what is being done around the area at Coliseum Central, it is beautiful. How is that being funded?
- My neighbor does not cut his grass at 4 Cherry Acres Drive, what can be done?
- Regarding taxes on homes, personally I feel that my value of my home is down, then I want to pay less taxes.
- Moved to Hampton 38 years ago, I have seen the most beautiful growth in the community
- Neighborhood Office is wonderful, I think the appearance of the neighborhoods is important and their interaction with the city and neighbors.
- Citizen moved here from California 12 years ago because she was so taken by the City of Hampton.
- Why were the medians put on LaSalle in the Wythe Neighborhood?